

This Halloween thru Day of the Dead Be Afraid, Very Very Afraid... of Insurance Companies!

“[Harvard] Study links 45,000 deaths to lack of insurance”

Reuters Headline, Sept. 17, 2009

Can you join us for a few hours during a 45-hour candlelight vigil for these 45,000 deaths linked to our for profit health care system?

WHERE: Blue Shield (Blue Cross) of California Offices at 2275 Rio Bonito Way, SD, CA 92108.

WHY: As former State Senator Sheila Kuehl, original author of California’s single payer legislation, has said: "Blue Cross is double cross, Blue Shield is no shield ... many gaps in coverage...many ways to deny you insurance... co-pays...deductibles...unaffordable premiums, just getting kicked off. Why? Because you used it."

WHEN: Starting With a Prayer Service --10 pm, Halloween, Saturday, October 31, through Monday, November 2, 2009. Variety of Activities. Big Rally 6-7 pm on Monday - Day of the Dead

WHO: Anyone Sick and Tired of the Current Insurance Controlled System That is Corrupting Our Political Democracy (i.e. Advocates of a Single Payer Health Care System) Is Invited to Participate.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE: Call Cindy Wilson, California School Employees Association at (858) 202-2610 to Sign Up for a Two Hour Time Slot and to learn more. Please Wear Black Clothes.

The Single Payer Action Coalition (SPAC) is organizing this event. For more information on the coalition, please contact Erik Olson Fernandez at erolson@csea.com or Dr. Zoltan Lucas, M.D. at zolta@prodigy.net.
